

JAMES FAMILY

Jonathan, first of the James family to live in Groton, brought his family from Meredith, NH in 1785. They were the second family to settle in Groton, on what was later, in 1787-8, surveyed as lot number two. He was born in January 1755 to John and Sarah (Sanborn) James in Grafton Co., NH. He is number 28, in the fifth generation from his emigrant ancestor, Edmund James, in the following register of the James family. Jonathan James was elected town treasurer at the first town meeting in 1797. He was in Groton's Grand List, about 1803, with 16 acres of land, presumably cleared land, for agriculture with 4 milk cows. Records show he was a "cordwainer" or shoemaker. In the 1790 census of Groton the family is listed with 6 members, and in the next two censuses, 1800 and 1810 there were 7 and 8 members respectively. In 1811 Jonathan purchased lots in the Groton-Peacham burial ground from Ephraim Wesson, but there is no record of him or any of his family being buried there. The family moved to Troy, Orleans Co., VT before the 1820 census.
